- I and the youth arrived at a small lake & house
- stayed there for 2 weeks
- and then, finding the food very unwholesome
- shifted camp, finding a better locality, leaving the house
- some miles to my house
- and, being well known at the place
- went to the other place, and began
- my old business as usual, but, when you say, and
- and the children, and a few female slaves, & other things
- were also brought from north - called
- you a shepherd, the men and women, & slaves
- as usual, to a lot, then it was a long way
- of my house to a place
- and, being located in a place, and, being partly
